

JUNIOR
SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA

Lillian Burger Slater,
1010 Fourth Street ,
S a n t a / R o s a, Cal.

Charmian London
Glen Ellen, California

~~_____~~

Charmian London
Glen Ellen, California
Cable: Jackondon Sonoma

Thursday

Dear Lillian Berger:

Yes, I need a new ribbon!

Your adorable letter was awaiting my return, and while I love it, I am devastated that you hurried so with the check. You were a naughty girl---or else have come into a fortune! Thanks, anyway. It really "came in handy."

I like to think of you reading the books---leisurely and perhaps, in the future, more than once. Armine von Tempski always carries it with her everywhere, bulky as it is. It and Donn Byrne's MARCO POLO. By the way, are you acquainted with this work, the book mentioned and Blind Raftery, and BROTHER PAUL---the latter is the most glorious story of Paul of Tarsus. If you do not know Byrne, do get acquainted soon. He has what I call the Irish fairytale brain---and more than that. And he is unforgettable. Dead, now.

JUNIOR COLLEGE LIBRARY
SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA

over

I am glad the Shepards ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ TOOK YOU accidental capitals!

THE FLOWERS. Take care of yourself-- and laze all you can.

You looked as if you needed rest--and then, the deluge, the broken bones. Some Deluge! Speaking of Deluge, have you read THE DELUGE and its sequel DAWN? Not new, but to me marvelous novels.

No, Good Morning. Got home last night from a really splendid week of things and the right people, last night: today, "deluged" with back work. But it 's is good work, and I like it, only, the days are so short.

With love,

Chamian Sandoz